Tell Me About FamilySearch...

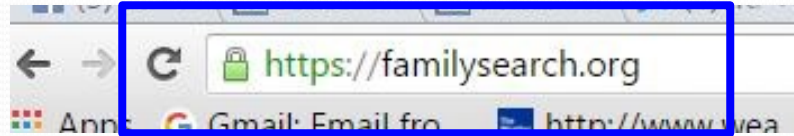

FamilySearch is available to everyone— free of charge.

FamilySearch provides a place to build your own family tree and to connect into the world's family tree.

FamilySearch provides access to billions of records and an opportunity to help build the database of digital records.

FamilySearch provides assistance through volunteer staff at 1-866-406-1830 (8am – 8pm M-Sa, 1pm – 8pm Sun MST GMT-7) and at your local FamilySearch Center.

Signing Up for a FamilySearch Account

You can sign up using your Facebook, LDS Church account, or create a new account.

Select your country of residence

Enter either your phone number or email so that FamilySearch can help you recover your username or password.

To create a new account:

Type your First and Last Names

Enter your birth date

Choose a username and password

Click "I agree..." and then click Done

The form is titled "Sign up with" and includes options for Facebook and LDS Church accounts. Below this is the "Create an Account" section. It contains several fields: "First Name" and "Last Name" (both with placeholder text "Enter first name" and "Enter last name" respectively), "Birthdate" (with dropdowns for Month, Day, and Year), "Country/Location" (a dropdown menu currently showing "United States"), "Username" (with placeholder text "Enter username"), "Password" (with placeholder text "Enter password" and a note "Choose a password of at least 8 characters, including spaces."), "Recovery Option" (with "Text" and "Email" buttons), "Mobile Number" (with a dropdown for "USA +1" and a text field for "Enter mobile number"), and a checkbox for "Add Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints membership information?". At the bottom, there is a checkbox for "I agree to the Terms of Use and Privacy Notice." and a "DONE" button.

Accessing Family Tree

The screenshot shows the FamilySearch homepage. At the top, the navigation bar includes 'FamilySearch', 'Search', 'Memories', 'Get Involved', and 'Activities'. The 'Family Tree' link is highlighted with a purple box, and a purple arrow points from it to a text box on the right. Below the navigation bar, the 'HOME' section features a sidebar with 'Overview', 'Tree', 'Person', 'Find', 'Following', and 'My Contributions'. The 'Tree' link is highlighted with a pink box, and a pink arrow points from it to the same text box on the right. The main content area includes a 'rootstech by FamilySearch' banner and a 'Hints' section with three historical records: John Paddock (Deceased), Ann Elizabeth Bishop (1849-), and Issac Kellaway (1832-). A 'Recent People' section is visible at the bottom right.

Click  to see the Options in the sidebar.

You can also print the pedigree.

Choose a First Ancestor

The First Ancestor Pedigree follows a family line descending from a male designated as the "first ancestor." Because this pedigree is patrilineal, you should be a direct descendant and have the same surname as your first ancestor.

Viewing a Person in the Center of the Pedigree

When you click on a person's name, the summary will open in the sidebar.

The screenshot displays a genealogy software interface. In the center, a pedigree chart shows a family tree. A person, Albert Edward Keast, is highlighted in the center of the chart. To the right, a sidebar displays a detailed summary for Albert Edward Keast, including a portrait, birth and death dates (1876–1945), and a family number (KN1V-FPF). The sidebar also features buttons for VIEW RELATIONSHIP, Sources (9), Memories (20), VIEW TREE, and VIEW PERSON. A red box highlights the VIEW TREE button. A red arrow points from the text box on the left to the Albert Edward Keast name in the pedigree chart. A blue arrow points from the text box at the bottom to the VIEW TREE button.

The screenshot shows the FamilySearch website interface. At the top, there are navigation links: FamilySearch, Family Tree, Search, Memories, Get Involved, and a partially visible 'A'. Below these are links for 'Following' and 'My Contributions'. A red box highlights the text 'Select Add Father or Mother, Add Spouse, or Add Child'. Red arrows point from this box to four specific buttons in the interface: 'ADD FATHER' and 'ADD MOTHER' in a box on the right, 'ADD SPOUSE' in a box on the left, and 'ADD CHILD' in a box at the bottom left. The background shows a family tree with several person cards. Visible cards include: William Desborough (1554-1610), Elizabeth Ewi (1558-1584), William Gylbye (1559-Deceased), John Brownson of uncertain ... (1545-1623), and Joan. There are also cards for Nicholas Disborough Jr (1613-1683) and Mary Gylbye (1580-1688). The interface includes a 'LANDSCAPE' dropdown menu and various icons for navigation and settings.

Adding a Person

Enter a first and last name

Select the gender

Select Living or Deceased

Add dates if possible.

Select a standardized date from the drop down list

The screenshot shows the 'Add Spouse' form with the following fields and annotations:

- Title: Empty field.
- First Names: Contains 'Nancy' (highlighted with a red box and a red arrow from the 'Enter a first and last name' box).
- Last Names: Contains 'Smith' (highlighted with a red box and a red arrow from the 'Enter a first and last name' box).
- Suffix: Empty field.
- Sex: Radio buttons for Male, Female (selected), and Unknown.
- Status: Radio buttons for Deceased (selected) and Living.
- Birth Date: Contains '1/8/1966'. Below it is a dropdown menu showing '1/8/1966' and two options: '8 January 1966' and '1 August 1966'. The dropdown is highlighted with a dashed blue box and a blue arrow from the 'Select a standardized date from the drop down list' box.
- Birthplace: Empty field.
- Death Place: Empty field.

Below the status section, there is a note: "Your deceased ancestor may already be in Family Tree. If possible, enter at least one date and place to improve the search results."

Standardized dates and places help the Family Tree program to work more efficiently to find sources.

Adding a Person

Start typing a place name (go from small to large, i.e. city, county, state, country)

Then select a standardized place from the drop down list

Standardized dates and places help the Family Tree program to work more efficiently to find sources.

Click Next

The screenshot shows the 'Add Person' form in the Family Tree program. The form includes fields for 'First Names' (containing 'Nancy'), 'Last Names' (containing 'Smith'), and 'Suffix'. Below these is a note: 'Enter birth or maiden name.' There are radio buttons for 'Female' (selected), 'Unknown', and 'Living'. A dropdown menu for 'Place' is open, showing two options: 'Eaglehawk, Victoria, Australia Town, 1852 - Present' and 'Eagle Hawk, New South Wales, Australia Populated Place'. The first option is highlighted. A red box highlights the 'Place' dropdown field, which contains the text 'Eaglehawk'. A red arrow points from the 'Place' dropdown to the 'NEXT' button. A pink arrow points from the 'Click Next' text to the 'NEXT' button. The 'NEXT' button is located at the bottom right of the form.

Adding a Person

For deceased persons, FamilySearch tries to find a match

Review the possible matches--if a match is found, select Add Match

If there is no Match, select Create Person

The screenshot shows the 'Add Spouse' interface on FamilySearch. At the top, it says 'Add Spouse' with a back arrow and 'Spouse: Priscilla Bishop'. Below this, there are two main sections: 'You Entered' and 'Possible Matches Found (1)'. In the 'You Entered' section, there is a profile for Henry John Stevens, born March 1852 in Middlesex, England, United Kingdom. Below this profile is a 'CREATE PERSON' button. In the 'Possible Matches Found (1)' section, there is a match for Henry John Stevens, born 18 February 1852 in Kensington, Middlesex, England, United Kingdom. Below this match is an 'ADD MATCH' button, which is highlighted with a red box. A blue arrow points from the 'Possible Matches Found (1)' section to the 'CREATE PERSON' button. A pink arrow points from the 'CREATE PERSON' button to the text 'If none of these matches are a correct match, select the Create Person button.'.

The screenshot displays a genealogy software interface. At the top, there are navigation icons (location, globe, question mark, chat, bell, menu) and tabs for 'Following' and 'My Contributions'. A 'Help Others' button is also visible. Below the navigation bar, there's a 'GO BACK TO OLD PEDIGREE' link. The main area shows a pedigree chart with several individuals highlighted. A red box highlights 'Albert Edward Keast' (1876-1945, KN1V-FP1) in the center. A red arrow points from the text box to this box. Another red arrow points from the box to the sidebar. The sidebar on the right shows a detailed view of 'Albert Edward Keast' (1876-1945, KN1V-FP1). It includes a portrait, name, dates, and a 'VIEW RELATIONSHIP' button. Below this, there are links for 'Sources (9)' and 'Memories (20)'. A purple box highlights the 'VIEW PERSON' button, with a purple arrow pointing from the text box to it. A pink arrow points from the text box to the bottom of the sidebar, indicating scrolling for more information. The pedigree chart also shows other individuals like 'Edith Ann Teague' (1879-1960, KNB1-S18), 'John Teague' (1859-1943, KNX), 'Priscilla Elizabeth' (1855-1893, LKX), 'Elsie Irene Doidge' (1905-1946, LH8M-YL3), 'Richard Doidge' (1827-1896, LX3), and 'Ann Waldron' (1827-1896, LX3).
